

Contractual Structures

Ground Lease (License Agreement)

A License Agreement usually accompanies the project documents. This agreement provides for the non-exclusive use by Peregrine of the property on which the utility assets are located, and also includes environmental indemnifications with respect to this property.

Bringing Business Sense to Every Project